GEORGE ADE "BUTTS IN"

Humorist on Way to Japan for Rest.

George Ade, writer of "Fables in Slang" and composer of musical comedies and bright dramas, as for instance his late success, "The College Widow," and a man who makes the world laugh, is a through passenger on the Korea en route to Japan. He will make the round trip in the Pacific Mail liner.

It was thought that Ade would remain here and possibly find some local coloring for a new musical comedy, but he says he has no such intention. In fact he is now finishing two new plays—American comedies—one for Charles Frohman and one for H. W. Savage. They will not be ready for submission until after his return from the Orient.

When George Ade was last in Honolulu he was still writing "Fables in Slang," the works which first brought him into prominence. Now he has done with Fables, for he says they're too monotonous. Since then he has been the author of "The Sultan of Sulu," "Peggy from Paris," "The Shogun," and, last but not least, "The College Widow," which is one of his best mirth-provokers. It has been so good that Weber and Fields have burlesqued it with "A College Widow."

"All my plays are paying well and seem to have struck popular favor," said Mr. Ade yesterday, "but I think I shall confine myself to plain comedies, they're better liked than the musical comedies."

Ade left New York and went to the West Indies and Mexico coming by the southern route into California.

Ade is still a young man, with a smooth-shaven face, but his hair is turning gray. A wag says this has been caused by chasing after his royalties and looking after so many plays. Ade doesn't look like a humorist. In fact, he looks a very serious-minded young man, with humor farthest from his thoughts. In fact, he looks sad.

"Unlike the Dooley contributions," continued Ade, "my articles proved too great a task. The Dooley articles are editorials in dialect and are constructed from fresh subjects in a manner that constantly interests the reader and are cleverly handled by their author. Hereafter I propose to devote my time to plays, of which I now have two in preparation. One is for Henry Savage and the other for Charles Frohman. For the Savage piece we selected the title of 'A Second Time on Earth,' but later discovered that the title was already in use. Consequently we abandoned it and have not as yet rechristened the play. For Frohman I am preparing a play that will be produced first in the provinces and later in New York. The other production will appear first in Washington in September and if successful it will be put on the boards in New York City."

Mr. Ade is accompanied on his travels by A. S. Lafflin, a wealthy resident of Chicago, and his wife, and G. C. Kent of Kentwood, Ill.

Ade is stopping at the Alexander Young Hotel. He spent part of yesterday with his old co-worker, Charles H. Rhodes, of the Star.

BASEBALL AND FOOTBALL TODAY

There will be two games of ball today to amuse the public. At 2:30 p. m. the H. A. C. and Punahou baseball teams will cross bats at the park. Both teams will present a strong lineup and are in shape to play a good game.

Following is the line-up:
H. A. C.—Carvello, c.; Joy, p.; Gleason, 1b.; J. Williams, 2b.; Primaltal, 3b.; En Sue, s.s.; Fernandez, 1f.; E. Fernandez, c.f.; Aylett, r.f.

Punahou—McCorriston, Judd and Turner, c.; E. Desha, p.; Woods, Marcelino, 1b.; Williams, Judd, 2b.; Campbell, Bruns, 3b.; Bushnell, s.s.; Tucker, G. Desha, 1f.; Stiles, c.f.; Ahrens, r.f.

At 4 p. m. two picked teams of Association football will meet. The Whites will struggle with the Blues in this game. The very best players in the city will participate in this game.

Following is the line-up:

Blues—McRitchie, goal; J. Kellet, E. Desha, backs; R. McCorriston, J. K. Clarke, M. Anderson, halves; E. Fernandez, G. Desha, J. Wee, Fiddis, forwards.
Whites—A. Catton, goal; W. Greig, W. Soper, backs; Blackman, Anderson, Guild, halves; R. Churton, J. Catterall, W. Campbell, Harwood, forwards.

Berger's band will be there to furnish the music.

An admission of 25 cents will be charged to witness both games.

LINER KOREA DAMAGED BY GALE WHICH LASTED TWO DAYS

Bow Deck Invaded by a Mighty Sea Which Twisted the Iron Railings—Notable List of Passengers on the Vessel.

With her cabins filled with passengers and her holds laden with rich cargo for the Orient, the Pacific Mail liner Korea docked at Naval Dock No. 3 yesterday afternoon at 1:40, after a tempestuous voyage. The vessel was scheduled to sail from San Francisco on February 14, but did not leave until a day later, at 1 p. m.

Then the Korea ran into southwest gales with heavy seas. Passengers by the wholesale became sick. The Korea had as bad weather as she has yet experienced. Her bow dived into masses of angry waters and one tremendous wave landed on the bow deck, twisting the railings, tearing away all material not screwed down and sending a big cylinder of wire crashing to the waist. Had it not been caught before striking the saloon partition it would undoubtedly have plunged through.

On February 16 at 3:30 p. m. the Korea spoke the four-masted schooner Fred J. Wood, bound to the islands, in Lat. 35-17, Long. 130-15.

The Korea will leave for Yokohama and China at 10 o'clock this morning.

The Korea has a notable passenger list aboard, notable because of its great size, and notable because there are important people in it. Major General MacArthur, U. S. A., goes to join the army of Oyama, as the representative of the United States Army. He is accompanied by Mrs. MacArthur and his aide, Col. B. Parker West. George Ade, the humorist and author, is en route to Japan. Captain Pershing, U. S. A., the hero of the Moro "pacification," and a Moro Datto himself, accompanied by his bride, formerly Miss Warren, daughter of Senator Warren, are en route to Tokyo, where the former will be the military attache to the American legation. They were met on arrival by U. S. District Attorney Breckons. John Goodnow is the deposed American consul at Shanghai. He was removed by the State Department, and now returns to enter private business. S. B. McNear and Mrs. McNear of San Francisco are making a tour of the Orient. Paul Bagley and Dr. Brodie of Detroit are on a pleasure tour. Col. Birkbeck of the British Army is en route to Japan. Surgeon F. L. Pleadwell, U. S. N., goes to Japan to take charge of the Navy hospital at Yokohama. M. F. Lowenstein, a prominent merchant of Manila, is returning there after a long visit in Europe and on the mainland. He is accompanied by his bride.

A large crowd is stopping off here. Among the tourists are F. H. Jernyn and Claude H. Smith of Scranton, Pa., and Utica, N. Y., who are here to tour the islands. Mrs. Jane L. Stanford will remain here for three weeks and then continue on to the Orient. W. L. Johnstone of the passenger department of the P. M. S. S. accompanied by his bride, will spend their honeymoon in Honolulu. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Binninger, Mr. and Miss Chase, Miss Helen Smith, Mr. Townsend Church, Ellsworth J. Foote, are tourists en route to Japan, who will make a short visit in Honolulu and take the next boat to Yokohama in time for the cherry blossom season. G. W. Richards and family of Nevada are here on a pleasure trip.

Among the kamaainas returning were Charles Dole, who has spent the past year on the coast, both in California and on the Sound. His health has completely returned and he now weighs more than ever. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cooke, who have been at Pasadena, returned, the former much improved in health. Mrs. Frank Andrade returned from a long visit to her sister Mrs. Dow, in Portland. Mrs. Milus Parkhurst and infant are back from a long stay in California, where Mrs. Parkhurst had interests in the Yoell case. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rice also returned from California. An injury to Mr. Rice's leg was treated there by a specialist and he is greatly improved. Mrs. M. F. Prosser, wife of the Deputy Attorney-General, returned W. H. Hogs came back from a business trip, and was glad to get here. E. C. Winston ditto.

The Korea is carrying a large amount of heavy machinery destined for Japan.

THE ATTACK ON PRATT

the nomination, except to strengthen Mr. Pratt. His friends here rallied warmly to his support and all officials who had any thing to do with the nomination had nothing but a good word for him.

"Pratt is a very excellent man," said Postmaster General Wynne. "The inspectors reported honestly on the case as it appeared from the witnesses they examined. But when there was a chance for the other side to be heard, it looked differently. Mr. Pratt showed that he was acting solely as an attorney and that he had protested, in his role as attorney, against the issuance of the deeds that made the trouble. I did not hesitate to recommend his appointment to the President, who acted promptly."

In fact the nomination reached the Senate twenty-four hours in advance of the time when Mr. Wynne expected it, which demonstrated the earnestness of the President's conviction. A short time previous to that a letter from Secretary Atkinson was taken to the White House, expressing his sentiments with reference to the charges. Senator Warren of Wyoming, also caused it to be known to the President that he stood squarely behind Mr. Pratt and was ready to vouch for his capacity in every particular.

Mr. Pratt was at his hotel, the Richmond, during the afternoon and was informed there by telephone that the appointment had been made. "I can not express my feeling of gratification at this," he said. "Of course I would not be understood as saying that I do not care for the office and the salary that goes with it, but I will say that I care a great deal more about having my good name vindicated. Since these charges were preferred against me, I have felt like one under trial. I feel exceedingly glad to have those charges refuted."

It is not believed that there will be any opposition to the confirmation of Mr. Pratt. The nomination has gone to the Senate Committee on Postoffices, of which Senator Penrose is chairman. Both Senator Warren and Senator Foraker can be counted on to see that the nomination is promptly disposed of.

Mr. Pratt did not, of course, indicate when he will return to Honolulu to assume his new duties. It can be taken for granted, however, that it will be in the course of a very few weeks. His presence in Washington will give him a splendid opportunity to get in touch with the officials of the Postoffice Department and get information as to numerous administrative details. There is an earnest desire on the part of the Department for some changes in the postal methods at Honolulu.

Delegate Kalaniana'ole called at the Postoffice Department a few days ago to inquire about the prospects of the Honolulu postmaster-ship. If Mr. Pratt was not to have the nomination the delegate indicated his wish to renew the endorsement of Postmaster Out. He was not encouraged to renew that endorsement and departed after a few moments' conversation.

OTHER HAWAIIAN MATTERS.

Nothing has yet been heard of Judge Gear, whose arrival in Washington was expected before this.

Apart from the Honolulu postmastership there has been a lull in Hawaiian activity here, since the last mail three days ago. The testimony given before the Elections Committee No. 2, on the protest of the Hawaiian Home Rule party, has been printed and numerous copies are lying on the long committee table. But Chairman Olmsted is absent, owing to the severe illness of his little daughter. For that reason the committee has held no meeting to decide what action, if any, shall be taken. There has been nothing to change the opinion, expressed in my last letter, that nothing will be done towards granting the request of the Home Rulers.

The River and Harbor appropriation bill, made public since the last mail, contains the provisions for the improvement of Honolulu Harbor, heretofore indicated. The language of the Honolulu paragraph is as follows:

Improving harbor at Honolulu, Hawaii: In accordance with the report and surveys made by the land department of the government of the Sandwich Islands prior to annexation and the further report of Lieutenant Slaterry, two hundred thousand dollars: Provided, That a contract or contracts may be entered into for such materials and work as may be necessary to prosecute said work, to be paid for as appropriations may from time to time be made by law, not to exceed in the aggregate two hundred thousand dollars in excess of the amount herein appropriated. The amounts herein appropriated and authorized may be expended upon sections one, two, and three, it being the intention to provide first for the completion of section one, and the Secretary of War is authorized and directed to cause a resurvey of said harbor to be made.

Under the paragraphs authorizing surveys occurs the following, which is the last paragraph in the bill:

Harbor at Hilo, Island of Hawaii, with a view to the construction of a breakwater along Blonde Reef to Cocoonut Island.

To date it is uncertain when the bill will be taken up. Rumors have been revived to the effect that the River and Harbor Bill would be killed. Senator Perkins has been an authority for the statement, saying that it would be done in the Senate, because of the demand for economy to prevent a government deficit of large proportions. But by the time this letter reaches Honolulu the bill will probably have passed the House if at all, and then something of a definite character about the prospects of the measure will have developed.

A BROKEN DOWN SYSTEM.

This is a condition (or disease) to which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a breakdown, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its causes (for they are almost numberless), its symptoms are much the same; the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weariness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what alone is absolutely essential in all such cases is INCREASED VITALITY—vigour—VITAL STRENGTH AND ENERGY to throw off these morbid feelings, and experience proves that as night succeeds the day this may be more certainly secured by a course of the celebrated life-reviving tonic than by any other known combination. So surely as it is taken in accordance with the printed directions accompanying it, will the shattered health be restored, the EXPIRING LAMP OF LIFE LIGHTED UP AFRASH, and a new existence imparted in place of what had so lately seemed worn-out, "used up" and "useless." This wonderful medicine is purely vegetable and innocuous, is agreeable to the taste—suitable for all constitutions and conditions, in either sex; and it is difficult to imagine a case of disease or debility, whose main features are those of debility, that will not be speedily and permanently benefited by this never-failing recuperative essence, which is destined to cast into oblivion everything that had preceded it for this widespread and numerous class of human ailments.

THERAPION

is sold by the principal Chemists throughout the world. Price in England, 2/6 and 4/6. Purchasers should see that the word "Therapion" appears on British Government Stamp (in white letters on a red ground) affixed to every package by order of His Majesty's Hon. Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery.
